

Pondy seeks to attract foreign investments

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Puducherry: Speakers at the CXO conclave on 'Reimagining, redefining, reclaiming growth in Puducherry' on Saturday outlined the opportunities and strategies for investing in the Union Territory.

It was organised by the Southern India Chamber of Commerce and Industries (Sicci) and Chithirai Business Associates with the Pudu-

ON THE DAIS: Lise Talbot Barre, consul general of France in Puducherry, and lieutenant governor Tamilisai Soundararajan at the event

cherry government Lieutenant governor Tamilisai Soundararajan appealed to investors to explore the possibilities in education, spirituality and tourism.

Consul general of France in Puducherry Lise Talbot Barre said there is scope for France and Puducherry to work together after France took over the leadership of the European Union. Czech Embassy (New Delhi) charge d'affairs Roman Masarik listed out collaborations in arts and architecture since the design of Auroville by architect George Nakashima. "There is ample scope for drawing investments in electronics, aerospace, electric vehicles and startups," said Sicci president Ar Rm Arun.

Avaikalam Solutions and Sree Kailas Group are the event partners while 'The Times of India' is the media partner of the conclave.